

By signing this agreement, the attendee agrees to the following terms:

General Courtesy

The attendee agrees to behave appropriately and respectfully towards everyone at the event, including the Presenter, other attendees and event location staff. All mobile phones must be switched off during the event and video or audio recording of any part of the event is not permitted without express consent. Health & Medical Conditions The attendee must disclose to the Presenter, any medical or physical condition or disability ('impairment') that will or might increase the normal risks associated with participation in this event, and if applicable, confirm to the Presenter that he/she has received their Doctor's consent to participate in the event. It is also not advisable to participate in a group hypnosis if an attendee has epilepsy or a psychotic disorder. The attendee acknowledges that the Presenter cannot guarantee a completely allergen free atmosphere and by attending the event, the attendee indemnifies the Presenter on this basis, from any illnesses that may occur as a result. Any health or medical information provided by the attendee will not be shared without his/her permission unless there is an emergency in which case it will be shared with such emergency service provider(s). Information Provided at this Event The attendee acknowledges that the Presenter is not a licensed medical practitioner, and all information provided is for educational purposes only and does not constitute any sort of medical or financial advice. Attending this event does not qualify an attendee to teach these skills. The attendee acknowledges and is aware that strong emotional responses may arise as a result of the activities presented at the event. In addition, this event is not for the purpose of personal therapeutic care as the Presenter is not aware of any attendees past emotional or medical history. The attendee accepts the risk of every decision made based on the information he/she learns at this event. The intellectual property rights in the materials presented at the event or provided at the event are vested in MARTP or the Presenter where applicable. Any materials provided at the event are for personal learning only and not for sharing, copying or displaying them in a public forum. Day of the Event The attendee remains solely responsible for any personal items (including electronic equipment) they bring to the event. The attendee consents to the Presenter videoing, photographing or otherwise recording the event and authorizes the Presenter to use any image, likeness or recording of the attendee in any manner the Presenter chooses without reference or payment to the attendee. If an attendee does not wish for their image to be recorded, they should advise the Presenter at the start of the event.

Liability

The attendee releases, discharges and absolves MARTP and/or the Presenter from all liability or responsibility for any illness, injury, loss, damage or expense which may arise from participation in this event. This includes claims or demands that may directly or indirectly occur because of the information obtained at this event. Responsibility for your physical and emotional wellbeing remains with you as the attendee and participation in the event is with your full and informed consent. By signing below, you acknowledge you have read, understood, and agree to the terms of this agreement including the waiver, release and indemnity and elect to voluntarily assume the risks of participation. You also agree that you are over the age of 18 and will not bring anyone to the event who is under the age of 18.
